MASONROSE

The Peninsula Beijing

MASONROSE

The Peninsula Beijing

KEY FACTS

With its dramatic traditional Chinese architectural-style exterior, and unrivalled location in the heart of China's capital, The Peninsula Beijing is the ultimate abode to explore the fascinating city.

Spectacularly renovated in October 2016, this palace subtly blends Oriental and Western elements, it provides discerning business and leisure guests with luxurious modern facilities close to the major sites of Tiananmen Square, the Forbidden City and The National Theatre.

In addition to its sumptuously appointed, newly-redesigned rooms and suites, The Peninsula Beijing is home to the largest suite in the city.

Exquisite fine dining can be sampled in the award-winning restaurant Huang Ting, whilst the hotel's renowned afternoon tea, served in the Lobby Lounge, and delectable cocktails at the rooftop Yun Bar, complete the epicurean offering.

The Peninsula Beijing's exceptional wellness and fitness facilities, comprising a spacious state-of-the-art gym, heated pool and dedicated Spa, provides a striking urban sanctuary for post-site-seeing relaxation and revitalisation.

From intimate meetings to lavish galas, over 1000 sq.m of versatile meeting and event space is available to suit all manner of occasions.

ACCOMMODATION

525 rooms in total, including 57 suites and 3 club floors:

Superior Room – 31 sq.m

Deluxe Room – 31 sq.m

Grand Deluxe City View Room – 34 sq.m

Grand Deluxe Courtyard View Room – 34 sq.m

Executive Suite – 50 sq.m

Duplex Suite – 68 sq.m

Deluxe Suite – 80 sq.m

Beijing Suite – 100 sq.m

The Peninsula Suite – 660 sq.m

FACILITIES

Newly renovated restaurant Jing, situated in the Lower Lobby I, is inspired by a secret Chinese garden, and serves sustainable and certified organic ingredients

Huang Ting, situated in the Lower Lobby II, serves authentic dim sum, exquisite Cantonese cuisine and Beijing specialities with an emphasis on seasonal produce prepared by award-winning Hong Kong chefs. The restaurant also has a tea counter serving Chinese teas and four private dining rooms

The Lobby Lounge provides a stylish setting for sophisticated power lunches and the exceptional signature high tea experience

Yun Bar & Lounge is the hotel's rooftop bar offering sweeping views of Wangfujing and Central Beijing

The Peninsula Spa features an Asia Tea Lounge, heat experiences, Ice Fountains, relaxation rooms and 12 treatment rooms and suites, including Thermal Suites and Crystal Steam Rooms

The Fitness Centre offers an 18m indoor heated pool and a chic redesigned gym with the latest Life Fitness equipment

A fleet of two bespoke Rolls Royce Phantoms, 10 customised BMW 7-Series and two Mercedes-Benz Vianos, all with complimentary Wifi

The Peninsula Arcade houses over 50 luxury brand boutiques across three floors, the largest selection of designer outlets in the city

PRIVATE ROOMS

1,110 sq.m of flexible meeting and event space, including The Grand Ballroom accommodating up to 600 guests, and seven function rooms, Business Centre with boardroom, private office and four semi-private work stations

DID YOU KNOW?

The Peninsula Beijing is conducting a landmark transformation this year. Starting at 60 sq.m, the 230 new guest rooms will be amongst the largest in Beijing and will feature a separate bedroom, living area, dressing room and valet box, as well as customisable in room tablets that can be pre-set in 11 languages to control all functions at the touch of a fingertip.

The hotel has ten animal figurines on its rooftop, the same number that Emperor Qianlong had on his.

The Peninsula Beijing offers personalised helicopter tours, including exclusive aerial views of the Great Wall.

Huang Ting restaurant is adorned with antiques dating as far back as the Qing dynasty.

Yun Bar & Lounge is the only rooftop bar in the Wangfujing district. Its traditional roof design of the original structure built in 1987 is adorned with 5 mythical animal sculptures. The name ‘Yun’ derives from the Chinese word for ‘cloud’.

The Peninsula Suite is the largest suite in Beijing at over 600 sq.m. It has its own private lift from the lobby and a full satellite kitchen with a private entrance connecting it to the dining room. It houses an impressive collection of Chinese antiques and contemporary Asian art.

The Peninsula Academy offers a collection of bespoke programmes for all ages, providing unprecedented access to Beijing’s rich historical, cultural and local lifestyle activities, such as bespoke tea ceremonies, a personal tai chi experience, the art of making dumplings and kites and rickshaw rides to the Hutong neighbourhood, as well as children’s cooking courses.

The Club offers check-in and check-out service, unlimited pressing and a private lounge serving complimentary buffet breakfast, afternoon tea and evening cocktails. PenCities by LUXE City Guides showcases the very best of each Peninsula destination, with an exclusive and unique online luxury lifestyle journal spanning all ten Peninsula cities.

Established in 1866, The Hong Kong and Shanghai Hotels, Limited is the parent company of The Peninsula Hotels, which manages The Peninsula Beijing.

The art-filled Lobby

Classic Cantonese at Huang Ting

Executive Suite Bedroom

Premier Suite - Living Room

SpaTreatment Room

Swimming Pool

Art gallery and artist in residency programme

Farm to fork dining at Jing

The Beijing Suite, Living Room