The Peninsula Hong Kong

KEY FACTS

Opened on 11th December 1928 and Hong Kong's oldest hotel, The Peninsula Hong Kong is the legendary 'Grande Dame of the Far East', offering a blend of the best Eastern and Western hospitality in an atmosphere of unmatched classical grandeur and timeless elegance.

Located at the southernmost tip of the Kowloon Peninsula overlooking Victoria Harbour, the hotel is situated in the heart of Kowloon's shopping, business and entertainment district, within walking distance of the underground railway system, the historic Star Ferry and landmarks such as the Cultural Centre and the city's art, space, science and history museums.

The hotel portrays the glamour of an era gone by with many antiques and historical artefacts on display.

New rooms are designed with classic modernity, simplicity and chic elegance, showcasing the finest materials and craftsmanship.

A pinnacle of culinary excellence and a reputable gastronomic destination, The Peninsula Hong Kong offers sophisticated flavours from around the world with its seven restaurants and two bars.

Guests will be spoilt by the lavish spa and fitness facilities, including two exclusive 'spas within a spa' for the ultimate private spa experience, a swimming pool with panoramic views of the city's iconic skyline and a state-of-the-art Fitness Centre.

The Peninsula Hong Kong is the quintessential venue choice to impress and inspire, with a selection of classically modern rooms to suit any and all occasions.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Peninsula Hong Kong was named after its location on the Kowloon Peninsula.

The Peninsula Hong Kong was the first hotel in Asia to have pageboys, based on the young 'grooms' of Europe.

The Peninsula's Lobby had the world's first check-in counter for an airline.

The China Clipper is a dedicated arrival and departure area for helicopter passengers, decorated with vintage aviation memorabilia and photographs.

Freeform at installations feature in every guest room, inspired by Chinese ink paintings and depicting details found in nature's flora and fauna.

The Peninsula Suite, situated on the 26th floor of the hotel, and The Marco Polo Suite enjoy complimentary butler service, a chauffeured Rolls-Royce and two MINI Cooper S Clubman vehicles on call.

Once an open terrace, The Verandah was enclosed in 1950. It also served Hong Kong's first-ever buffet Marijn Coertjens, the hotel's Maître Chocolatier, is named the world's 'Best Belgian Chocolate Master' at the World Chocolate Masters Competition in 2015.

The Peninsula Hong Kong is famous for its record-breaking fleet of luxury vehicles, including an immaculately restored classic 1934 Rolls-Royce Phantom II, 2 MINI Cooper S Clubmans, all of which have been painted the signature Peninsula Brewster Green and customised with refrigerators and iPod connections.

In 1980, the hotel's nine Silver Shadow IIs were painted in Brewster Green. The deep hue of dignified green is now known at Rolls-Royce as 'Peninsula Green' and appears only on vehicles intended for The Peninsula.

The Peninsula Academy offers a collection of bespoke programmes for all ages, providing unprecedented access to Hong Kong's historical, cultural, and local lifestyle experiences.

PenCities by LUXE City Guides showcases the very best of each Peninsula destination, with an exclusive and unique online luxury lifestyle journal spanning all ten Peninsula cities.
