

MASONROSE

Hotel Excelsior, Dubrovnik

Hotel Excelsior, Dubrovnik

KEY FACTS

Overlooking the Adriatic Sea and just a few steps from the UNESCO Dubrovnik Old Town, Hotel Excelsior's stunning location offers guests breath-taking views from every floor and an easy walk into ancient history

Opened in 1913, this iconic hotel celebrated its centenary in 2013 - with an eclectic mix of old architecture and fresh design

Recognised for its nonchalant elegance, personal touch and impeccable service, guests continue to return to Hotel Excelsior year after year and it remains a firm favourite amongst visiting celebrities and dignitaries

The luxuriously appointed 141 rooms and 17 suites provide complete comfort and state-of-the-art technology

Guests have a choice of gourmet dining at three sea-view restaurants overseen by Executive Chef Peter Obad, which serve authentic local, national and international cuisine

LOCATION AND ACCESS

'Beach' front, city centre

Dubrovnik Airport: 20 km, 30 min by car

Split Airport: 245 km, 3.5 hr by car

Flight time from the UK: 2 hr 40 min

Airlines from the UK: British Airways, easyJet, Ryanair
Norwegian Air, Thomson Airlines, Aer Lingus, Monarch

ACCOMMODATION

158 rooms in total, including 17 suites:

43 Superior Rooms - ensuite bathroom

29 Classic Rooms - ensuite bathroom

69 Deluxe Rooms - ensuite bathroom, balcony

15 Executive Suites - one bedroom, dining and living room, separate toilet, Jacuzzi, balcony

1 Presidential Suite - two bedrooms, one large dining room, two bathrooms, balcony with sea view

1 Ambassador Suite

1 Villa Agave - one of the finest luxury villas in Dubrovnik, situated on a clifftop on the remains of a 13th century chapel. Features three luxurious bedrooms, ensuite bathrooms, one large living room with fireplace, dining room for up to 8 people, relaxation room, outdoor grill kitchen, outdoor pool, Jacuzzi, private 'beach'

FACILITIES

Sensus Restaurant - At this new restaurant, run by executive Chef Petar Obad, guests can enjoy the freshest of local produce and delicacies, paired with the finest Croatian wines. Boasting a superb outdoor space, guests can dine under the patio's charming cobbled archways looking out onto the crystal blue sea.

Beach Restaurant Prora situated directly by the sea, serving light meals and seafood

Restaurant Salin - the hotel's main restaurant, one of the best places in Dubrovnik to enjoy a buffet breakfast overlooking the Old Town

Thai Table - new restaurant serving authentic Thai cuisine in an informal atmosphere

Abakus Piano Bar and Restaurant - serving Mediterranean cuisine

Palm Terrace - ideal for hosting parties, weddings and celebrations

Six multifunctional conference rooms catering for 15 to 650 participants

Energy Clinic Spa - 850 sq.m, featuring a fitness club with the latest cardio and strength equipment, 20 metre indoor pool, 2 Jacuzzi whirlpools, Roman bath, Finnish sauna, three treatment rooms, one VIP treatment room with Jacuzzi, one VIP treatment for two with Jacuzzi, and relaxation zones with heated deckchairs

Boutiques and gift shops

Direct access to the sea, with terrace

Parking for 50 vehicles (individual guests have free valet parking, parking for larger parties on request)

PRIVATE ROOMS

Meetings for up to 450, cocktail receptions for up to 400

	Cocktails	Theatre	Classroom
Lavandula	400	450	270
Lavandula I	250	250	150
Lavandula II	50	50	30
Laurea	120	150	70
Laurea I	60	65	40
Laurea II	60	65	40
Salvia	20	20	16

DID YOU KNOW?

Adriatic Luxury Hotels, in partnership with one of the finest wineries from the Pelješac region (Skaramuča family winery), has selected a premium plot to grow a limited variety of Plavac Mali grape to create a special Dingač Reserve 2010 (Limited Vintage), which is exclusively sold at their hotels and villas.

Opened in 1913, this lavish Dubrovnik hotel boasts a rich history, which includes visits from the most famous names around the world, such as HRH Queen Elizabeth II,

Richard Burton, Elizabeth Taylor, Onassis, Senator Edward Kennedy, Margaret Thatcher, King Olaf, Vaclav Havel, Francesca von Habsburg with her family, Ivana Trump, Sir Roger Moore, Martin Sheen and many others.

The Palm Terrace is the prime location for outdoor special events, from weddings to exclusive parties. It offers stunning views of the sea and Old Town and is ideal to watch the opening of the Dubrovnik Summer Festival and its legendary firework display. The terrace is 'the' place to be seen on warm evenings.

Hotel Excelsior's Energy Clinic presents an array of spa treatments, including massages, body rituals, scrubs and baths, as well as products. Offering a personal approach with customised skin and body care, the hotel offers one of the widest ranges of luxury skincare treatments in Dubrovnik. There is also a hairdresser on site.

The hotel can arrange cultural tours, island cruises, scuba diving, motor and sail boats, private yacht excursions, water sports, panorama flights, horse-riding and more.

Villa Agave is a 270 sq.m exclusively designed summerhouse, situated on a cliff above the Adriatic Sea, just a short walk from Hotel Excelsior. It is designed to a high degree of luxury in a Mediterranean style, with many interesting and valuable antique details. The interior is filled with art, including works by respected Croatian artists Milovan Stanic and Romana Milutin Fabris.

