The Peninsula Shanghai

KEY FACTS

The Peninsula Shanghai occupies a prime location in the heart of Shanghai's historic Bund, overlooking the Huangpu River, Pudong and the gardens of the former British Consulate

Yuyuan Garden, Huangpu Park, Rock Bund, the shopping area of Nanjing Road in Puxi and the Lujiazui Business Centre in Pudong are all within walking distance from the hotel

The intricately styled rooms and suites are a tribute to the glorious Art Deco era, when the city was recognised as the 'Paris of the East'. Each room features an eclectic blend of traditional materials used in 1920s Shanghai to create a luxurious and nostalgic yet contemporary ambience

Guests can experience another level of gastronomy at The Peninsula Shanghai with its three signature restaurants - Sir Elly's Restaurant, Bar and Terrace, Yi Long Court and The Lobby, and two bars - the stylish Compass Bar and glamorous Salon de Ning

Awarded five stars by the prestigious Forbes Travel Guide, the chic 1930s Shanghai-inspired Peninsula Spa offers world-class spa treatments designed to restore energy and balance

There is also a fully-equipped fitness centre with expert personal trainers, thermal facilities and a stunning indoor pool with a full-length skylight

The elegantly designed state-of-the-art event rooms can be combined and adapted for any meeting, conference, event or special occasion
