The Peninsula Beverly Hills

The Peninsula Beverly Hills

KEY FACTS

The Peninsula Beverly Hills is designed to resemble a gracious private residence

It is the only AAA Five Diamond and Forbes Five Star hotel in South California, and is located in the very heart of Beverly Hills. In addition, the hotel is situated at the intersection of Wilshire and South Santa Monica Boulevards, within walking distance of the financial and shopping sectors of the golden triangle, including the legendary Rodeo Drive and Century City

This discreet hideaway offers luxurious comfort, world class facilities and the renowned Peninsula services

The elegantly appointed rooms, suites and private villas exude classic sophistication and are nestled amid lush, tropical gardens, providing the ultimate home-away-from-home for discerning guests

This gracious hotel is home to a superb selection of restaurants, where old Hollywood charm meets sophisticated contemporary cuisine. The elegant Belvedere, Southern California's only AAA Five Diamond Award restaurant for 21 consecutive years, is a power lunch favourite that epitomises fine dining

The Living Room is where the celebrated Peninsula Afternoon Tea is served daily and adjacent to the lively Roof Garden, offering healthy Californian fare, is The Peninsula Spa. It is a hidden gem incorporating highly effective treatments with the finest therapists, equipment and products to offer a truly customised spa experience

DID YOU KNOW?

The Peninsula Spa, known as the beauty destination for Hollywood's elite, provides its own Peninsula range of tailor-made facials and massages.

The Peninsula Beverly Hills takes pet friendly to another level. Guests' dogs are pampered with personalised towels, luxurious doggy beds and a specially-designed menu that offers treats such as the 'Bow Wow Beef Burger' and 'Spot's New York Strip'.

Executive Chef David Codney maintains a rooftop herb garden at The Roof Garden that he calls 'The Farm', where he grows a variety of herbs, fruit and vegetables. All of the ingredients are used in dishes throughout the hotel.

The hotel prides itself on its privacy and has a no phone policy in public areas.

The Imperial Tea comes with the iconic Peninsula Page Boy Cap Cake wrapped to take home, which is modelled after the white pillbox caps worn by early hotel pageboys.

The Peninsula Villa Suites are situated in free-standing villas set amidst the hotel's lush tropical gardens and have access to a private entrance to the hotel's back gate, providing complete confidentiality and privacy.

The Peninsula Academy offers an array of activities designed to immerse guests of all ages in the local culture of Los Angeles, including behind-the-scenes access to a major Hollywood movie studio, an architectural tour of iconic Los Angeles buildings, a shopping experience with a top Hollywood stylist to fit like the stars with a wellness guru.

The hotel offers a complimentary chauffeur service within Beverly Hills and Century City. Guests who book any of the hotel's elegant suites are offered complimentary use of a luxury car for the length of their stay.

Flexible check-in and check-out experience at no extra charge, based on availability.

All rooms and suites have multi-function digital bedside control panels.

The hotel has five signature suites, each with a unique colour scheme - subtle rose, tranquil blues, relaxing greens, fresh whites, and subtle silver accents. These spacious one-bedroom suites feature fireplaces and are accessorised with an eclectic collection of books and objets d'art.

The hotel was named #1 Large City Hotel in the US in Travel + Leisure's 2013, 2014 and 2015 World's Best Awards.
