

MASONROSE

Shambala Private Game Reserve, Limpopo

Shambala Private Game Reserve, Limpopo

KEY FACTS

Zulu Camp at Shambala Private Game Reserve offers an authentic African bushveld experience, boasting 12,000 hectares of wilderness in the Limpopo Province, home to the 'Big Five' and set against the backdrop of the beautiful Waterberg mountain range

With just eight luxurious lodges constructed in traditional

Zulu materials that blend seamlessly with the landscape, Shambala provides a truly magical safari experience and is ideal for honeymooners, couples and guests seeking a truly 'Out of Africa' experience. Activities on offer include game drives, guided bush walks, star gazing, fishing, mountain bike riding, sundowner cruises and bush picnics, as well as unwinding at the intimate Shambala Spa

LOCATION AND ACCESS

O.R. Tambo International Airport Johannesburg 2.5 hours by car

ACCOMMODATION

7 Chalets

1 Luxury Chalet

FACILITIES

Bush picnics

Sunset cruises

Game drives & walks

Star gazing

DID YOU KNOW?

Shambala, means 'Paradise on Earth' in Tibetan.

South Africa's Limpopo Province is home to the 'Big Five' (leopard, elephant, rhino, buffalo and lion).

The Douw Steyn Dam creates a 30 hectare body of water providing watering points for hippos, crocodiles and a varied fish population.

The Nelson Mandela Centre for Reconciliation was opened in 2011 at Shambala Game Reserve as a tranquil setting to facilitate Mr. Mandela's considered efforts towards reconciliation.

The Shambala private estate covers almost 12,000 hectares of pristine wilderness.

Zulu Camp can be hired exclusively for special celebrations.

Exterior

Deck

Rhino

Impala

Suite 2

Private Table Setting

Luxury Outdoor Bathroom

Exterior shot

Luxury Suite Bedroom 1

Spa Deck Chairs

