Villa Orsula, Dubrovnik

KEY FACTS

This stunningly beautiful boutique hotel was completely reconstructed and refurbished for its grand opening in April 2012, offering breathtaking views of Lokrum Island, the Adriatic Sea and the UNESCO protected Dubrovnik Old Town – just a 5 minute stroll away

The exterior of the villa, designed with gracious stone architecture inspired by Mediterranean tradition, blends with the modern interior to create stylishly luxurious accommodation

Rooms are spacious and elegantly decorated in a modern style

Villa Orsula has two impressive bars – one inside with unique features from the original building; the other alfresco with a beautiful terrace, perfect for cocktails whilst Victoria Restaurant offers guests a Peruvian Adriatic fusion menu whilst enjoying the view over the Adriatic and Dubrovnik Old Town

Villa Orsula can be hired by guests as an exclusive private villa

DID YOU KNOW?

Villa Orsula can also be hired by guests as an exclusive private villa

The head chef of Victoria Restaurant, Roberto Chavez, showcases a gourmet menu guided by a health conscious philosophy. Together with local chef Luka Jukić, the cuisine combines the best of local ingredients to create the first Peruvian/Adriatic fusion

Set on a grapevine-draped terrace overlooking the Adriatic

Sea and Dubrovnik Old Town, Victoria Restaurant is very much a destination restaurant, which has become one of the smartest dining venues in Dubrovnik

Villa Orsula is only a 5 minute walk from Dubrovnik Old Town and is located just next door to Hotel Excelsior

The property was originally built in 1939. Artists Roberto Matta and Victor Vasarely were amongst those who worked on its immaculately refurbished interiors. Large canvases of the distinctive architecture of the Old Town feature throughout
