KEY FACTS

With an enviable location in the village of Courchevel and an outstanding level of service, guests are ski ready at Les Neiges - every morning the hotel's exceptional ski service team will lay out your skis at the foot of the slopes, warm your boots and help you get ready. Guests will enjoy a unique experience in a pristine natural environment - ski in the morning, indulge in a little shopping nearby in the heart of the resort and dine while enjoying marvellous views.

Each of the generously sized rooms and suites, as well as the incredible 310 sq.m. 'Les Neiges Apartment' in this chalet-style hotel, boast a warm and welcoming atmosphere combining alpine charm with a contemporary feel.

Exquisite dining options from French culinary classics at Parisian Brasserie Fouquet's to inventive and inspired wood-fired cuisine by Mauro Colagreco.

Guests can unwind after a day on the slopes at the serene 1000 sq.m Diane Barrière Spa, with Hammam and Jacuzzi. Bespoke Biologique Recherche treatments and massages are specifically designed for high-altitude conditions.

The Clefs d'Or Concierges can arrange unforgettable activities and entertainment for the whole family. Guests can try out heli-skiing, dog sledding through the forest or taking a hot air balloon ride to admire an incredible aerial view of Courchevel.

The hotel offers a dedicated space with separate areas, specifically designed for teenagers and very young children. A wealth of activities centred around ten major arts are available each day; talented hosts prepare fun workshops to encourage your children's artistic creativity.

DID YOU KNOW?

Nestled in the middle of Les 3 Vallées - the largest skiing area in the world - Courchevel has over 600 km of ski slopes and 170 mechanised ski lifts. Thanks to its outstanding and varied setting, the pleasure of winter sports and thrills will enchant experienced and novice skiers alike. The mountains lend themselves to a host of activities. Les 3 Vallées offers a wide range of options, all of which can be arranged by the Concierges Clé d'Or of Hôtel Barrière Les Neiges.

French, luxury brand Biologique Recherche has a clinical and personalised approach to skincare using intentionally pure, raw active ingredients.

B for Barrière, Fire for wood-fired cuisine. The new wood-fired dining concept at Bfire, created by innovative chef Mauro Colagreco, is inspired by his childhood in Argentina. He believes that cooking over an expertly controlled fire can reveal the flavours and nuances of meat, fish, vegetables and fruit. Chef Colagreco heads up several restaurants including Le Mirazur in Menton, which has 2 Michelin stars and is ranked 4th in the world according to The World's 50 Best restaurants 2017 list.

On November 8th 1899, Louis Fouquet opened a restaurant at 99 Avenue des Champs-Élysées that was to become, in the eyes of the world, the Parisian restaurant. In 1928, Le Fouquet's became the privileged meeting place of the cinematic world with the opening of the first projection room on the Champs-Élysées. Legendary, prestigious, warm and welcoming in the spirit of the great Parisian brasseries, Le Fouquet's is for all those who love to meet at any time of day in lively locations frequented by the great and good from the world of cinema, arts and entertainment, to sample French cuisine developed in collaboration with Pierre Gagnaire.

On Sunday evenings, the hotel presents a 'Barrière Ciné-Club' in the private cinema room at 6pm. For €35 per person, guests can enjoy a private screening with a glass of champagne and savoury delicacies.
