Grand Hotel Tremezzo, Lake Como

Grand Hotel Tremezzo, Lake Como

KEY FACTS

Built in 1910, Grand Hotel Tremezzo is one of the oldest luxury hotels on Lake Como. It has been recognised as a Preferred Members' Choice Award Winner 2019 for being one of the 'Top Hotels in Europe' by Preferred Hotels & Resorts.

New to Grand Hotel Tremezzo in 2018 was the stunning Villa Sola Cabiati. Just moments away from the hotel this magnificent villa offers 6 bedrooms and comes complete with staff, a beautiful Italian garden and a swimming pool. Guests may also use the facilities of the hotel just a short water taxi ride away

The family owned hotel commands one of the most enchanting positions on the lake with exquisite views of

Lake Como and the town of Bellagio, the Riviera delle Azalee and the stunning Grigne Mountains

The lake's must see sights are just a stone's throw away, including beautiful aristocratic villas with manicured gardens: Villa Balbianello, Villa Carlotta and Villa Melzi

Art Nouveau in style and decoration, this historic hotel features 8 Rooftop Suites stylishly designed by Italian designer Venelli Kramer, in collaboration with the owning family. They feature private panoramic terraces and outdoor Jacuzzis, which can be covered to create a 'Sky Bed', enabling guests to sleep outside and stargaze

DID YOU KNOW?

World-renowned chef Gualtiero Marchesi, the first non-French chef to be awarded 3 Michelin stars, is credited for having made the biggest contribution to the evolution of Italian cuisine and its popularity worldwide. Michelin-starred restaurant La Terrazza has been named after him and the restaurant is now the only place in the world serving his signature dishes in his own style, including his gold leaf Milanese risotto.

Grand Hotel Tremezzo is truly a family owned and run hotel with the current, Italian family, having been the proud owners for the last 40 years.

Suite Greta is named after Greta Garbo's film 'Grand Hotel' (1932), where she refers to Tremezzo as "that happy, sunny place"

T Spa at Grand Hotel Tremezzo offers exclusive products and treatments from one of the world's most exclusive beauty providers, the Officina Profumo Farmaceutica di Santa Maria Novella.

Many Italian artists have their works of art displayed in the gardens
