Grand Hotel du Palais Royal, Paris

Grand Hotel du Palais Royal, Paris

KEY FACTS

The Grand Hôtel du Palais Royal is recognised in Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards as one of the best luxury hotels in Paris. Set within a classy neighbourhood where architecture, culture and gastronomy blend with the most exclusive Parisian boutiques, it holds a prestigious location overlooking the Palais Royal Garden; just steps from the Louvre Museum, the Comédie Française Theater, rue Saint-Honoré, and the Tuileries Gardens.

The hotel is nestled in a magnificent 18th century building, parts of which are officially designated a historic monument. Pierre-Yves Rochon has created an ultra-refined stylish interior combining classic luxury with modern designs. Some of the luxurious rooms and suites have their own balcony with spectacular views of Paris.

Chef Jean-Baptiste Orioux and his team offer modern, seasonal and tasty cuisine in the delightful winter garden of Lilli restaurant with regularly renewed menus.

The exclusive spa offers guests access to a large Turkish hammam, a menu of treatments, a fitness room with state-of-the-art equipment and tailor-made coaching programmes.

For the last five consecutive years the Grand Hotel du Palais Royal has been awarded the Green Key Label. It is a proud supporter of sustainable development and incorporates eco-friendly policies across all areas through energy saving, waste recycling, effective water management, reuse of linens and using local suppliers. The concierge can arrange bicycles or 'green' cars for guests to tour Paris.
